CASE STUDY

Create New Operational Unit to Manage Subsea BOP Failures

CLIENT: BP USA DEEPWATER GULF OF MEXICO

Completed extremely aggressive Federal Court ordered test protocol on schedule and within budget

WHAT YOU WILL READ

The challenge · The outcomes · How we did it · Competencies applied

THE CHALLENGE

- Client was spending over $850M/Yr. on failing subsea control system including blowout preventers
- Their had never been a organizational unit put together with the right skill sets to manage these issues
- Multiple E&P companies, equipment companies, law firms, Government/Law Enforcement Agencies, contractors and sub-contractors involved in exercise

THE OUTCOMES

- Completed extremely aggressive Federal Court ordered test protocol on schedule and within budget
- Improved efficiencies, multi channel coordination and communications to align disparate parties to achieve c common goal

PHOTO

placeholder - drop an image here

HOW WE DID IT

- Worked with client to design new job descriptions with the right skill sets needed to fulfil this mission
- Worked with client to design and build the new organization
- Managed multiple vendors and sites to achieve commitments and ensure accountability
- Leveraged Boxley Group experience in crisis management, rapid response measures, and managing high-profile, high-impact projects

COMPETENCIES APPLIED

Information management | Crisis management | Project and Program Management

PHOTO

placeholder - drop an image here

DISCUSS A SIMILAR CHALLENGE: INFO@BOXLEYGROUP.COM